

AWWA FALL

WORDS OF WISDOM

B I O G R A P H Y

The Italian-Senegalese singer is just 21 years old but her amazing voice and charisma rival that of many experienced artists. In 2015, she was just 18 and released a reggae album (entitled "INA DIS YA IWA", produced by Bonnot Music and distributed by Goofellas). The same year, in collaboration with Eazy Skankers, she performed on the most popular reggae stages across Europe (Rototom, Overjam, One Love, etc.). In 2016, she started her career as solo artist, which allowed her to start several important collaborations within the black music scenario, in Italy and Europe, then she came back to record the tracks for her new discographic work with the awardwinning producer Bonnot (General Levy, Dead Prez, Assalti Frontali). In 2017, she played at Dub Camp, Dub Gathering, Overjam, and many other festivals, going across more than 10 nations (even outside Europe). On January 4, 2019, she will release her new and long-awaited "Words of Wisdom". The new album will be distributed throughout the continent and from January on Awa Fall (aka Sista Awa) will be on tour with her new band, the Smoke Orchestra, composed of the greatest black music musicians, to create a live set that embraces all genres of world music, from soul to African music, reggae and hip-hop.

At only 22 years old she performed an average of 100 shows per year all over Europe, playing in all the best festivals like Rototom Sunsplash, Overjam, the International Dub Gathering, the Dub Camp and Bergamo Jazz Festival. The Senegalese/Italian artist is ready to spread her new music through this international release that features the “Grammy Nominated” Kumar Fyah (Jam) former-leadsinger/songwriter of Raging Fyah, M1 of the legendary hip-hop duo “Deadprez” (USA), the “Incredible”

General Levy (UK), Irie Child (Jam) and Tommy Kuti (Ita/Nig).

Reggae and Afro music have always been part of Awa’s roots, but producer Walter “Bonnot” Buonanno (Deadprez, General Levy Assalti Frontali) led her on a path through different landscapes creating an album full of different styles and new faces. “Words of Wisdom” will be released on January 7th in all digital stores for Bonnot Music and physically by Master Music. Composed, recorded and produced by the multi-award winning Bonnot at his Bonnot studio in Viareggio (Italy).

Mastering by Chris Athens (Damian Marley, Erykah Badu, Sean Paul).

Awa Fall’s Tour, managed by Tube Agency, is already started and she will play all over Europe, Canada and Indonesia backed by the Smoke Orchestra.
